36 GEORGII III. Cap. CXXVII.

An Act for enabling the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies to purchase Ground for building Warehouses upon, and to make a new Street from Petticoat Lane to White Street, instead of Gravel Lane in Petticoat Lane.

[19*th May* 1796.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies have purchased, and are possessed of, a large Spot of Ground lying on both Sides of a public Lane called Gravel Lane, in Petticoat Lane, in the Parish of Saint Botolph Aldgate, in the City of London, between a Street called New Street, near Bishopsgate Street, in the City of London, towards the North, Petticoat Lane aforesaid towards the East, Harrow Alley, in the said Parish of Saint Botolph Aldgate, towards the South, and certain Houses and Grounds in White Street and Cutler Street, in the same Parish towards the West; and in order to enable the said United Company to build certain Warehouses which are convenient for their Accommodation, it is necessary to purchase a small Estate in or near a Court called Five Inkhorn Court, in Petticoat Lane aforesaid, belonging to Joseph Sibley Esquire and Frances Brudenell his Wife, which they are willing and have contracted to sell to the said United Company for the Sum of three hundred and fifteen Pounds: And whereas the Goods to be deposited in the said Warehouses will be of very great Value, and the Public will be interested therein as well as the said United Company, and it is necessary, not only for Convenience but for Safety, that the said intended Warehouses should be united and made private; but the said Ground, so as aforesaid possessed by the said United Company, is intersected almost through the Centre by the said Lane called Gravel Lane, communicating in different Directions from Petticoat Lane aforesaid to Harrow Alley aforesaid, and the said Lane called Gravel Lane, by reason of its Winding and great Narrowness, (not being more than eight Feet Wide in several Parts), is exceeding inconvenient for Carriages: And whereas it will be of great Utility, not only to the said United Company, but to the Neighbourhood and the Public, that a new Street, instead of Gravel Lane aforesaid, should be made in a straight Line from the End of Harrow Alley in Petticoat Lane, along the same Alley to the South-west End thereof, and that the same should be continued, not exceeding thirty Feet, to a Line to run parallel with the South-west Side of White Street, and that the said new Street, at that Termination, should be turned to the North-west to run into the said Street called White Street, which leads to Houndsditch, and should be made throughout of the Width of sixteen Feet from Wall to Wall: And whereas the said United Company are willing, at their own Expense, to make such new Street as aforesaid, from Petticoat Lane to White Street, and for the Purpose of making the same of such Width as aforesaid, to give up to the Public a Part of their own Ground, and to purchase certain Buildings and Ground at the Western End of the said intended new Street belonging to the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Mystery of Cutlers within the Liberty of the City of London, and by them leased to divers Tenants, provided so much of the said Lane called Gravel Lane, as runs from Petticoat Lane aforesaid to the Northern Boundary of a certain vacant Piece of Ground, now in Lease to the Reverend Josiah Thompson, be vested in them for their own Use; but as the said Premises contracted to be purchased by the said United Company for their Warehouses as aforesaid, are settled to strict Uses, and those which it will be necessary to purchase to make the said new Street are also comprised in Settlements to strict Uses, or are vested in Persons unable to dispose of the same, or with whom the said Company cannot agree; and as the said Lane, called Gravel Lane, is a public Lane, Passage, or Highway, the Purposes aforesaid cannot be effectuated without the Authority of Parliament; may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, or their Court of Directors for the Time being, for and on the Behalf of the said United Company, shall have full Power and Authority to purchase the Ground, Houses, and Buildings, and the Materials thereof, and other Hereditaments, in and near Five Inkhorn Court, belonging to the said Joseph Sibley and his Wife, and also to the said Ground and Buildings belonging to the said Company of Cutlers, or so much of the said respective Grounds and Buildings as the said United Company shall deem it necessary to purchase and to take Possession, and to cause Possession to be taken thereof, and to cause the Houses and Buildings thereon to be pulled down, and the Posts and Pavements before the same to be taken up, removed, and altered, in such Manner as the Court of Directors for the Time being of the said United Company shall think proper, and to build and erect, and to cause to be built and erected on the same Premises, such Erections and Buildings, and to make such Openings thereto as the said Court of Directors for the Time being of the said United Company shall think proper; and this Act shall be sufficient to indemnify the said United Company, their Directors, Agents, Workmen, Officers, and Servants, and all Persons acting by or under their Authority, against the Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, of any of the said Owners, Lessees, or Occupiers of the Premises so purchased.

and that the said Capital Stock of Annuities, or the Surplus thereof, after making good such Deficiency (if any such there should be) should remain and continue as a Guarantee Fund, for the better securing the Capital Stock of the said United Company, or the Value thereof, rating the same as aforesaid, after such Determination of their whole, sole, and exclusive Trade, for so long Time as they should continue to trade with a Joint Stock, and subject thereto; and after making good all such Deficiencies, the said Capital Stock of Annuities, or so much thereof as should then remain, should be and be deemed the Property of the Publick, as by the said recited Act may appear: And whereas it is just and expedient that, after the Stock of the said Company shall be encreased, the said Guarantee Fund should be also encreased, so as to give the Proprietors of the said encreased Stock the same Security and Benefit as the Proprietors of the present Stock of the said Company are entitled to; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from Time to Time when and as the said Company's Stock shall be encreased, the said Fund, in the said recited Act, called The Guarantee Fund, shall also be encreased, by the Means and in the Manner in which the said Guarantee Fund of Twelve millions of Pounds Sterling is to be raised, so that the same may amount to the Sum of the Capital Stock of the said Company, computing the same at such Rate as in the said recited Act is mentioned; 33 Geo. III. Cap. 52, further recited.

IX. And whereas, by the said Act made in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, taking Notice of a Fund separately belonging to the said United Company, and therein called The Company's separate Fund, it was enacted, that the said separate Fund, or the Monies constituting the same, should continue in the Hands of the said Company, bearing Interest, and be employed in their Trade, subject to the Payment of such Dividends as were therein-after specified; and that the said separate Fund, with the growing Interest thereof, should be divided and distributed in the Manner therein after mentioned, and in no other Manner whatsoever, that is to say, that after Payment should be made by the Company into His Majesty's Exchequer of the Two First Instalments of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds each, which by force and virtue of that Act would become due from the said Company to the Publick on the First Day of July One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and the First Day of January One thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, respectively, or otherwise, after setting apart a sufficient Sum for such Payments (which said Payments were duly made agreeable to the Provision of the said Act), it should be lawful for the said Company, out of the said separate Fund, and the Interest or growing Income thereof, to make and declare a Dividend or Dividends after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum on the present or any future Amount of their Capital Stock, which said Dividend or Dividends should be paid and payable to the said Company over and above any other Dividend or Dividends which should become due in respect thereof; and that after the Expiration of the further Term thereby granted in the said exclusive Trade, it should be lawful for the said Company to retain and dispose of what should then remain of the said Company's separate Fund, or of the Monies constituting the same, and the Interest or other Annual Proceeds thereof, in such Manner as they should then think fit: And whereas the Payment of the said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum to the Proprietors of the said increased Stock out of the said separate Fund as in the said recited Act is mentioned, will exhaust the same long before the Expiration of the Term of the said exclusive Trade, to the Injury of the present Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, who would thereby be deprived of such Dividend for the Remainder of the said Term, and in regard the Money to be raised by the said increased Stock is for the mutual Benefit of the Publick and the said United Company, it is fit that the said Dividend should be considered as a Charge upon the said Trade; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Dividend of Ten Shillings per Centum, which under the Authority of the said recited Act will be payable to the Proprietors of the said increased Stock out of the said separate Fund, shall be paid to them out of the Annual Profits of the said Company, in the same Manner, and at the same Times, as the Dividend of Ten Pounds per Centum in the said Act mentioned is to be paid to the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company; and for that Purpose a Sum equal to the Amount of such Dividends shall, from Time to Time, be debited to the Annual Account, as a Charge on the said Trade, and carried to the Account of the said separate Fund; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dividend of 10s. per Cent. payable under recited Act, out of the separate Fund, to be paid out of the Profits of the Company.

Publick Act.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Continuance of Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force so long as the said Treaty between His Majesty and the United States of America shall continue in Force, and no longer.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; and for preventing British Subjects from being concerned in Loans to the Native Princes in India. [20th July, 1797.]

Preamble.
13 Geo. III. Cap. 63.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe, it was enacted, That it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to erect and establish a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, to consist of a Chief Justice and Three other Justices, being Barristers of England or Ireland, of not less than Five Years standing, to be named from Time to Time by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors: And whereas by the said Act, and by divers other Acts of Parliament, certain Jurisdictions, Powers, and Authorities, were given to the said Court to be exercised in the Manner therein directed: And whereas it may be expedient that the Number of Judges should be reduced; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That immediately after the Death, Resignation, or Removal, of any of the Puisne Judges of the said Supreme Court, that the Office of One of the said Puisne Judges shall be and the same is hereby suppressed; and from and immediately after such Death, Resignation, or Removal, the said Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, and Two other Judges only; and all Powers, Jurisdictions, and Authorities whatsoever, shall, from and after such Period as aforesaid, be enjoyed and exercised by the said Chief Justice and other Judges, in as full and ample a Manner as the same might have been held, enjoyed, and exercised, by the said Supreme Court under the Authority of the said herein-before recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or under the Charter of Justice, granted by His Majesty under the Authority of the same.

On the Death, &c. of any of the Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Bengal, it shall consist of a Chief Justice and Two other Judges.

His Majesty may direct the Payment of a yearly Sum out of the Territorial Revenues, to any Chief Justice or other Judge returning to Europe.

II. And whereas His Majesty has by Law no Power to direct the Application of any Part of the Revenues of the Territorial Acquisitions in India, as a Provision for a Chief Justice, or other Judge, of the said Supreme Court, who, from Infirmity, or other Causes approved of by His Majesty, may return to Europe: And whereas it is expedient that such Power, to a limited Extent, be vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Death, Resignation, or Removal, of One of the Judges of the said Supreme Court, and the Suppression of the said Office in the Manner herein-before directed, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, to authorize and direct the Payment of a competent Yearly Sum out of the Revenues arising from the Territorial Acquisitions in India, to be applied for the Use and Behoof of any Chief Justice or other Judge, who, from Age, Infirmity, or other Cause, to be approved of by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall return to Europe.

Not more than 2,000*l.* per Ann. to be so paid to any Chief Justice, nor more than 1,500l. per Ann. to any other Judge, nor to any that has not resided in India as a Judge for Seven Years, &c.

III. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to authorize the Payment of any larger Sum for the Use and Behoof of any Chief Justice so returning as aforesaid, than the Sum of Two thousand Pounds per Annum, or of any other Judge, than the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum; nor shall it be lawful for His Majesty to authorize the Payment of any Sum whatever to any Person who has not resided in India as Judge of the said Supreme Court for the Space of Seven Years; nor shall it be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to authorize the Payment of any Sum which, with the Sums already directed and authorised to be paid, at the Date of such Grant, shall, in the Whole, exceed the Amount of the Salary now paid to One of the Puisne Judges of the said Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court, where the Matter in Dispute does not exceed 1,000 Pagodas, may direct Depositions to be filed of Record, or not.

IV. And whereas, by the Charter of Justice granted by His Majesty, under the Authority of the herein-before recited Act, passed in the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, the said Supreme Court of Judicature was directed and required to reduce, or cause to be reduced, to Writing, the Depositions of Witnesses in civil Causes, and was directed to require the same to be subscribed by such Witnesses, with their Name or other Mark, and to file the same of Record: And whereas by the said Charter of Justice, it was also directed that no Appeal should be allowed from the said Supreme Court of Judicature, unless the Value of the Matters in Dispute exceed the Sum of One thousand Pagodas: And whereas the requiring the Depositions of Witnesses to be reduced into Writing, and filed of Record, is productive of much Expence and Delay in small Causes, where the Value of the Matter in Dispute does not exceed One thousand Pagodas, and which, for that Reason, cannot be made the Subject of Appeal; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be in the Discretion of the said Supreme Court, in all Cases when the Value of the Matter in Dispute does not exceed One thousand Pagodas, either to direct the Deposition of Witnesses to be reduced into Writing, and filed of Record, or not, as the said Court shall think fit, in the particular Case; any Thing in the said Charter of Justice contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Court of Directors may direct the Chief Justice to issue a Precept to the Officers of the Supreme Court, to make a Return, on Oath, of their Salaries and Fees.

V. And whereas by the said herein-before recited Act, it was enacted, that His Majesty might, by Charter or Letters Patent, establish a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; in the Manner, and with the Powers in the said Act mentioned; and it was also enacted, that the Supreme Court so to be erected should have Power to appoint Clerks and other Ministerial Officers, with such reasonable Salaries, as should be approved of by the Governor General and Council: And whereas His Majesty did issue His Royal Letters Patent for erecting a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and, among other Things, Power was given to the said Supreme Court, from Time to Time, as Occasion should require, to appoint such Clerks and Ministers as should be necessary for the Administration of Justice, and the Execution of the Authorities granted to the Court, which said Officers and Clerks were to receive such reasonable Salaries as the said Supreme Court should appoint for each Office and Place respectively, and as the Governor General and Council should approve: And whereas the said Supreme Court did appoint certain Clerks and Ministers, with Salaries, which were approved of by the Governor General and Council: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the said Salaries so appointed and approved of as aforesaid, can be reduced or altered, or any of the said Offices abolished or suppressed, without the Authority of Parliament: And whereas the Salaries paid by the East India Company to the Clerks and Ministers of the Supreme Court, amount to a large Sum, and yet nevertheless the said Clerks and Ministers have, and do receive, Fees for all Business done by them in the said Court: And whereas it may be expedient that the said Salaries should be reviewed, and that Power should be given to alter the same if necessary; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants trading to India to direct the Chief Justice of the said Supreme Court to issue a Precept or Order, directed to all and each of the Officers, Clerks, and Ministers of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, calling upon them and each of them to make a Return upon Oath, which Oath the said Chief Justice, or any of the Judges of the said Supreme Court, are hereby empowered and required to administer, of the Amount of the Salary received by such Officer and Officers, and also a List of the Fees to which he or they are entitled, together with the Amount of the same, which have been received by such Officer for the Three Years next immediately preceding the Date of the said Precept or Order.

Officers of the Court to make a Return to the Precept in 20 Days, and for making a false Return to forfeit their Offices.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Clerk, Officer, and Minister of the said Supreme Court, shall pay due Obedience to the said Order or Precept, and make a true Return to the same within Twenty Days next after the Date of the same; and if any such Officer, Minister, or Clerk shall be guilty of making a false Return, or shall not set forth in the same the full Amount of the Salary, Fees, Perquisites, and Emoluments which he shall have received for the last Three Years, and each or any Part of the same during which he shall have been in Office; then and in such Case, such Officer shall, upon being duly convicted thereof, forfeit his said Office, and be for ever incapable of holding any Office in the said Supreme Court, or in the Service of the said United Company.

Judges to take Returns into Consideration, and Report to the Governor General in Council what Offices should be continued, and the Salaries.

If the Council agree with the Judges respecting Retrenchments, they are to be made, subject to the Orders of the Court of Directors, who are also to decide if the Council and Judges disagree.

If a Vacancy occur before the Report is made, it is to be filled up provisionally.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Chief Justice and other Judges of the said Supreme Court, shall, as soon as they conveniently can after the Receipt of the said Returns, take the same into their Consideration, and report to the Governor General in Council, under their Hands and Seals, which of the said Offices are, in their Opinion, proper to be continued and what is the proper Salary to be allowed to each of the same, and whether any Retrenchment can, with Propriety, be made therein, with their Reasons for the same; and in case the said Chief Justice and the other Judges, or any of them, shall not agree respecting the said Report, then such of the said Judges as do dissent from the Opinion of the Majority shall also report, under his or their Hands and Seals, his or their Opinion, with the Reasons thereof; and in case the Governor General in Council do agree with the Majority of the said Supreme Court concerning the Extent of the said Retrenchment, if any can be made therein, the said Governor General in Council shall, and they are hereby empowered to alter, abridge, or abolish, all or any of the said Offices and Salaries which to them shall so seem proper to be altered, or abridged, or abolished, at such Time and Times, and in such Manner as they shall think fit, subject nevertheless to such Orders and Directions as they shall receive from the Court of Directors concerning the same; but in case the said Governor General in Council shall disagree with the said Report from the Majority of the said Court, or any Part thereof, then such Parts of the said Report, as are the Subjects of Difference between the said Governor General in Council and the said Supreme Court, shall be suspended, and shall not be carried into Execution, but the same shall be transmitted Home for the ultimate Decision of the Court of Directors respecting the same, who shall give such Orders respecting the same as they shall think fit: Provided always, that, from and after the passing of this Act, and until the said Report shall be made and considered as is herein-before directed, if any Vacancy shall occur in any of the Offices or Places under the said Supreme Court, which are herein directed to be reviewed, the same shall be filled up by the Judges of the said Supreme Court provisionally only, and a Person or Persons shall be by them appointed to do the Duty of the said Office until the said Report shall be made; and such Office or Offices shall be liable to be reduced, or the Salaries altered, if necessary, in the same Manner as if they were actually vacant at the Time of making such Report.

Regulations of the Governor General in Council, which affect the Natives or others amenable to the Courts of Justice, to be printed, with Translations, in the Country Languages, &c.

VIII. And whereas certain Regulations for the better Administration of Justice among the Native Inhabitants and others, being within the Provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, have been from Time to Time framed by the Governor General in Council in Bengal; and among other Regulations it has been established and declared as essential to the future Prosperity of the British Territories in Bengal, that all Regulations, passed by Government, affecting the Rights, Properties, or Persons of the Subjects, should be formed into a regular Code, and printed, with Translations, in the Country Languages, and that the Grounds of every Regulation be prefixed to it; and that the Courts of Justice within the Provinces be bound to regulate their Decisions by the Rules and Ordinances which such Regulations may contain, whereby the Native Inhabitants may be made acquainted with the Privileges and Immunities granted to them by the British Government, and the Mode of obtaining speedy Redress for any Infringement of the same: And whereas it is essential that so wise and salutary a Provision should be strictly observed, and that it should not be in the Power of the Governor General in Council to neglect or to dispense with the same; be it therefore enacted, That all Regulations which shall be issued and framed by the Governor General in Council at Fort William in Bengal, affecting the Rights, Persons, or Property, of the Natives, or of any other Individuals who may be amenable to the Provincial Courts of Justice, shall be registered in the Judicial Department, and formed into a regular Code, and printed, with Translations, in the Country Languages, and that the Grounds of each Regulation shall be prefixed to it; and all the Provincial Courts of Judicature shall be, and they are hereby directed to be bound by and to regulate their Decisions by such Rules and Ordinances as shall be contained in the said Regulations; and the said Governor General in Council shall annually transmit to the Court of Directors of the East-India Company Ten Copies of such Regulations as may be passed in each Year, and the same Number to the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

Recital of Charter from King George the Second.

IX. And whereas His late Majesty King George the Second did, by His Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the Eighth Day of January, in the Twenty-sixth Year of His Reign, grant unto the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, His Royal Charter, thereby, amongst other Things, constituting and establishing Courts of Civil, Criminal, and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, at the said United Company's Settlements at Madraspatnam and Bombay in the Island of Bombay, and Fort William in Bengal: And whereas the said Charter, in so far as it respects the Administration of Justice at Fort William in Bengal, has been altered and changed by an Act, passed in the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe: And whereas the said Charter does not sufficiently provide for the due Administration of Justice in such Manner as the State and Condition of the Company's Settlements at Madraspatnam and Bombay, do and must require: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by Charter or Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to erect and establish a Court of Judicature at Madras and Bombay respectively, which shall consist of the Mayor and Three of the Aldermen resident at the said Settlements of Madras and Bombay respectively for the Time being; which Aldermen shall, from Time to Time, be selected in such Manner as shall be directed and prescribed by His Majesty in the said Charter, together with One other Person at each of the said Settlements, to be named from Time to Time by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, which said Person shall be a Barrister of England or Ireland, of not less than Five Years standing, which said Person so appointed shall be the President of the said Court, and shall be styled The Recorder of Madras and Bombay respectively; which said Courts of Judicature shall have, and the same are hereby declared to have, full Power and Authority to exercise and perform all Civil, Criminal, and Ecclesiastical, and Admiralty Jurisdiction, and to appoint such Ministerial Officers as may be necessary, and to form and establish such Rules of Practice, and such Rules for the Process of the said Court, and to do all such other Things as shall be necessary for the Administration of Justice and the due Execution of all or any of the Powers which shall or may, by the said Charter, be committed to the said Courts; and the same shall also be at all Times Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery in and for Fort Saint George, and the Town of Madras, and the Limits thereof, and the Factories subordinate thereto, and in and for the Town and Island of Bombay, and the Limits thereof, and the Factories subordinate thereto respectively.

An Act for regulating the Manner in which the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall hire and take up Ships for their regular Service.
[12*th July* 1799.]

Preamble.

The East India Company shall employ in their Service no Ships but such as shall be contracted for, for Six Voyages, and shall advertise for Proposals and accept the lowest Terms.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Manner in which the Ships hired and taken up for the Service of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, should be regulated as herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said United Company, or their Court of Directors, shall employ in their regular Service no Ships but such as shall be contracted for to serve the said Company, as they shall have Occasion to employ them in Trade and Warfare, or any other Service, for Six Voyages to and from India or China, or elsewhere within the Limits of the said United Company's exclusive Trade; and that, from Time to Time, whenever the said United Company shall have Occasion to cause any Ship or Ships to be built for their Service, the Court of Directors of the said United Company shall give Notice thereof by public Advertisement, and therein state the Burthen of the Ship or Ships wanted, the Dimensions or Scantlings of Timbers and Planks, Number of Guns, Manner of building, providing, furnishing, and storing such Ships, the Time to be allowed for building, (which shall be as long as reasonably may be), and other Particulars necessary to enable Persons to judge of the Expence thereof, and the proper Rate of Freight for such Ships respectively, or shall refer to and give Information of all such Particulars by their proper Officer; and the said Advertisement shall fix a Time (not less than Four Weeks from the Publication thereof) for receiving Proposals in Writing, sealed up, for building and freighting the same to the Company, such Proposals to specify the lowest Rates of Freight, or, if the Company shall require it, of Freight and Demorage in Time of Peace, required for such Ships for Six Voyages to and from India or China, or elsewhere within the Limits of the Company's exclusive Trade, to be employed in Trade and in Warfare, or otherwise, as shall be thought proper by the Company, if the said Ships respectively shall so long be fit for the Company's Service; and that all the Tenders or Proposals which shall be made in pursuance of such Notices, shall be put into a Box locked and sealed, which shall not be opened, except publicly in a Court of Directors, and the Contents of such Proposals respectively shall be entered in a Book, and the Proposals offering the lowest Peace Freight, or Peace Freight and Demorage, as the Case may be, shall be accepted, without Favour or Partiality; and in case more Ships than shall be wanted shall be tendered to be built at the same low Freight, then the Court of Directors shall determine which of the said Proposal or Proposals shall be accepted.

The Court of Directors may make Agreements with the Ship Owners for ascertaining additional Charges in Time of War, or Preparation for it.

II. And be it further enacted, That over and besides the Peace Freight and Demorage herein-before mentioned, the Court of Directors shall be at Liberty to make such Agreements with the Owners of the said Ships, either from Voyage to Voyage, or for the whole Term of the said Ships being engaged in the said Company's Service, for the ascertaining and Payment of the additional Charges arising to the said Owners in Time of War and Hostilities, or Preparations for War and Hostilities, as the said Court of Directors shall think right and just.

The Directors may enter into Agreements at permanent Rates of Freight and Demorage for Times of Peace, and additional Rates during the present War

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors, if they shall see fit, to advertise for and receive Proposals, and enter into Agreements, for Ships to be built for the Service of the said Company for Six Voyages, at permanent Rates of Freight and Demorage for Time of Peace, and also at established Rates of additional Freight and Demorage to be paid during the present War, and that in that Case they shall be at Liberty, and are hereby required to accept such Proposals as, both Circumstances being considered, shall appear upon the Whole to be the lowest and most for the Advantage of the said United Company, without Favour or Partiality, and to enter into permanent Agreements accordingly; and in Case Two or more Proposals shall offer Terms equally advantageous, the said Court of Directors shall determine which of them shall be accepted.

Act not to oblige the Directors to accept unreasonable Proposals, although the lowest.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to oblige the said Court of Directors to accept or enter into any Agreement, or any Proposal or Proposals which they, or the major Part of them, shall deem to be unreasonable, although such Proposal or Proposals may be the lowest and the most advantageous which may be offered.

If a regular Ship be lost or captured before the Completion of her Fifth Voyage, the Directors may agree with the Owners to build another upon certain Conditions.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case any regular Ship which, since the Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, hath been engaged in the regular Service of the said United Company, or which now is, or hereafter shall be, engaged in the said Service for Six Voyages, hath been, or shall be, lost or captured before the Completion of her Fifth Voyage, if upon a full Investigation of the Circumstances of such Loss by the said Court of Directors, or some Committee thereof, the Commander and Owners of such Ship shall be fully acquitted from all Imputation of Neglect or Misconduct in respect of such Loss, in the Opinion of Eighteen Directors at least at a Court specially assembled for the Purpose of taking the said Commander's and the Owners' Conduct into Consideration; and provided always, that such Vote or Resolution of the Court of Directors shall be reported to a General Court of Proprietors, and shall after such Report be confirmed by way of Ballot by Three Parts in Four of the Proprietors assembled in General Court specially convened for that Purpose, whereof Eight Days previous Notice of the Time and Purpose of such Meeting shall be given in the London Gazette; and if such Commander shall be then living, or if he should have lost his Life, or have been absolutely disabled from further Service on the Occasion which produced the Loss of the said Ship, and the Chief Officer of the said Ship should have exerted himself honourably for her Defence and Safety, either in Fight or Distress at Sea, and shall be acquitted in Manner herein-before mentioned, from all Imputation of Neglect or Misconduct in respect of such Loss, and such Acquittal shall also be confirmed in Manner herein-before mentioned, then it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Directors to agree with the Owners of such Ship so lost to build another Ship for the Service of the said Company, to be employed by them at the same Freight and Demorage, and upon the same Terms for and on which such lost Ship was originally taken up, for the Number of Voyages which such lost Ship had not completed of the Number of Voyages originally contracted for, so as the Owners shall agree that, at the Expiration of the remaining Voyage or Voyages, such new Ship shall continue in the Service of the said United Company until she shall have performed Six Voyages, which subsequent Voyages shall severally be performed at the lowest Rate of Freight and Demorage, either in Peace or War, which shall be payable in respect of the Ship of a similar Description as to the Equipment contracted for last, before the said Ship shall proceed upon each of the said subsequent Voyages: Provided always, That such Ship so rebuilt shall be commanded in the first Instance by the Captain of the former Ship, if he be able to serve, and failing of him by the said Chief Officer of the former Ship, if he be able to serve.

In Cases of Exigency, Ships may be hired for any particular Service.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Directors of the said United Company, or their Servants Abroad, in Cases of unforeseen Exigency, to hire Ships for any particular Service; and in Cases of Ships so hired, publick Notice shall be given by Advertisement of the Ships or Tonnage wanted, and the Service required, Fourteen Days at least previous to the Time appointed for taking up the same; and the Proposals to be made in pursuance of such Advertisements shall be put into a Box locked and sealed, which shall not be opened, except publickly in a Court of Directors, or by the Governor and Council, where the Contract shall be made in any of the Company's Settlements in India, and then the lowest Tender or Tenders shall be accepted, without Favour or Partiality, if it shall be deemed reasonable, and if upon a due Examination and Survey the Ship or Ships tendered shall appear to be in all Respects fit for the Service required.

Act not to extend to Packets or Vessels employed in the Marine Establishment in India.

VII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, in any ways to relate to Ships or Vessels hired or taken up or employed as Packets, or any of the Ships or Vessels belonging to or employed in the Marine War Establishment of the said United Company in the East Indies; but it shall and may be lawful for the said United Company, and their Court of Directors and Servants Abroad, to hire, take up, and employ Vessels for those Purposes only, in such Manner as they shall see fit.

Bye Laws of the Company, not repugnant to this Act, to remain in Force.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every, and so much and such Part of the Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations of the said United Company, and of their Court of Directors, now in force, and hereafter to be made, any way relating to the shipping Concerns of the said Company, and to the Commanders and Officers in their Service, which are not, or shall not be inconsistent with or repugnant to the Provisions hereby enacted, shall remain and be of the same Validity, Force, and Effect, and shall be observed in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as the same Bye Laws, Rules, and Regulations, or such Parts thereof as aforesaid, would have been in force, and ought to have been observed, if this Act had not been made; or to restrain the said Company from repealing or making any Bye Laws, so as they shall not be inconsistent with the Provisions herein contained; this Act or any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

His Majesty may grant Commissions for holding General Courts Martial.

XVIII. And whereas for more effectually suppressing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the Punishment of other Offences committed by Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the said United Company, during the Time of their being trained and disciplined by virtue of this Act, or by any of the Officers or Non-commissioned Officers employed on that Service, it may be necessary that His Majesty should be enabled to convene Courts Martial, or to authorize the same to be convened, consisting either in the Whole or in Part of Officers in the Service of the East India Company who hold Commissions from His Majesty: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty from Time to Time to grant a Commission for the holding of General Courts Martial for the Trial of Offences committed by Officers or Soldiers in the Service of the said United Company, during the Time of their being so employed, and trained and exercised under the Authority of this Act, which Courts Martial may either consist of Officers appointed to train and discipline the said Men, or of such other Officers in the Service of the East India Company, holding Commissions from His Majesty, as may be in Great Britain upon Furlough, or by Leave of Absence, or of Officers in His Majesty's Service in Great Britain, or of such Numbers and Proportions of each, as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and such Courts Martial shall in all other Respects be convened, and have the same Powers and Authorities, and their Sentences shall be carried into Execution, as if they were Courts Martial respecting His Majesty's Forces.

Regimental Courts Martial may be convened.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That Regimental Courts Martial, or Courts Martial to be composed of Officers of different Corps, with the same Powers as Regimental Courts Martial, may be convened for enquiring into such Disputes or Criminal Matters as may come before them, touching any of the Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers in the Service of the said United Company during the Time of their being so employed and trained and exercised as aforesaid, and for awarding corporal or other Punishments for small Offences; and such Courts Martial shall be constituted and proceeded, and their Sentences shall be carried into Execution, in like Manner as if they were Courts Martial respecting His Majesty's Forces.

Offences committed after Embarkation, may be tried on Arrival at Place of Destination.

XX. And forasmuch as it may happen that Offences may be committed by the said Officers and Men after their Embarkation, and before their Arrival at their Places of Destination Abroad, which nevertheless cannot be tried and punished during their Passage, in such Manner as such Offences ought to be tried and punished; be it therefore enacted, That in every such Case, every such Officer or Soldier shall and may, after his Arrival at his Place of Destination Abroad, be tried and punished for every Offence committed after his Embarkation, and before his Arrival, in the same Manner as he would have been liable to be tried and punished if such Offence had been committed in any Place where the Offender could have been tried by any Court Martial held under the Authority of the said Act, passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign.

Court of Directors to transmit a Report of the Number of Men levied, &c. to the Secretary of State and the Commander in Chief.

XXI. On Request of the Clerk of the Court and the Solicitor of the Party, the Bank shall deliver a Certificate stating the Amount of such Stock or Dividends, &c. for which the Fees herein specified shall be paid.

Act not to extend to any further Discovery than herein mentioned; nor to any Case where the Bank claim an Interest in the Fund, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Suits now depending, in which the said Governor and Company may have put in their Answer, not claiming any Interest in or Lien upon the Stock required to be transferred, no further Proceeding shall be had against them as a Party to such Suits, but that the Bill shall stand dismissed as against them in such Suits; and that in all such Suits an Order may be made, upon Motion or Petition as of course, for the taxing of their Costs already incurred, and for immediate Payment thereof by the Plaintiffs in any such Suits, or any of them, subject however to any further Order as between the other Parties to such Suits, respecting the final Payment of such Costs, as by the Court in which any Suit may be depending shall be deemed just.

In Suits depending where the Bank have put in their Answer, not claiming any Interest in the Stock required to be transferred, Proceedings shall be stopped and the Bill dismissed, &c.

43 GEORGII III. Cap. LXIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for regulating the Manner in which the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall hire and take up Ships for their regular Service; to continue until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six. [24th June, 1803.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for regulating the Manner in which the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall hire and take up Ships for their regular Service; it is enacted, that from and after the passing of that Act, the said United Company, or their Court of Directors, should employ in their regular Service no Ships but such as should be contracted for to serve the said Company, as they should have Occasion to employ them in Trade or in Warfare, or any other Service, for Six Voyages to and from India, China, or elsewhere within the Limits of the said United Company's exclusive Trade; and that from Time to Time, whenever the said United Company should have Occasion to cause any Ship or Ships to be built for their Service, the Court of Directors should give Notice thereof by public Advertisement in Manner therein mentioned, and that the said Advertisement should fix a Time, not less than Four Weeks from the Publication thereof, for receiving Proposals in Writing, sealed up, for building and freighting the same to the Company, such Proposals to specify the lowest Rates of Freight, or if the Company should require it, of Freight and Demurrage, in Time of Peace, required for such Ships, for Six Voyages to and from India or China, or elsewhere within the Limits of the Company's exclusive Trade, to be employed in Trade and in Warfare, or otherwise, as should be thought proper by the Company, if the said Ships respectively should so long be fit for the Company's Service; and that all Tenders and Proposals which should be made in pursuance of such Notices, should be put into a Box locked and sealed, which should not be opened, except publickly in a Court of Directors, and that the Contents of such Proposals respectively should be entered in a Book, and the Proposals offering the lowest Peace Freight, or Peace Freight and Demurrage, as the Case may be, should be accepted without Favour or Partiality; and in case more Ships than should be wanted should be tendered to be built at the same low Freight, then that the Court of Directors should determine which of the said Proposal or Proposals should be accepted; and by the said Act it is provided, that in case any regular Ship, which, since the Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, had been engaged in the regular Service of the said Company, or which then was or thereafter should be engaged in the said Service for Six Voyages, had been or should be lost or captured before the Completion of her Fifth Voyage, if upon a full Investigation of the Circumstances of such Loss by the said Court of Directors, or some Committee thereof, the Commander and Owners of such Ship should be fully acquitted of all Imputation of Neglect or Misconduct in respect of such Loss, in the Opinion of Eighteen Directors at least, at a Court specially assembled for the Purpose of taking the said Commander and Owners Conduct into Consideration, and provided that such Vote or Resolution of the Court of Directors should be reported to a General Court of Proprietors, and should after such Report be confirmed by way of Ballot, by Three Parts in Four of the Proprietors assembled in General Court specially convened for that Purpose, whereof Eight Days previous Notice of the Time and Purpose of such Meeting should be given in the London Gazette; and if such Commander should be then living, or if he should have lost his Life, or have been absolutely disabled from further Service on the Occasion which produced the Loss of the Ship, and the Chief Officer of the said Ship should have exerted himself honourably for her Defence and Safety, either in Fight or in Distress at Sea, and should be acquitted in Manner therein-before mentioned from all Imputation of Neglect or Misconduct in respect of such Loss, and such Acquittal also be confirmed in Manner therein-before mentioned, then that it should be lawful for the Court of Directors to agree with the Owners of such Ship so lost to build another Ship for the Service of the said Company, to be employed by them at the same Freight and Demurrage, and upon the same Terms for and on which such lost Ship was originally taken up, for the Number of Voyages which such lost Ship had not completed of the Number of Voyages originally contracted for, so as the Owners should agree that at the Expiration of the remaining Voyage or Voyages, such new Ship should continue in the Service of the said United Company until she should have performed Six Voyages, which subsequent Voyages should severally be performed at the lowest Rate of Freight and Demurrage, either in Peace or War, which should be payable in respect of the Ship of a similar Description as to the Equipment contracted for last, before the said Ship should proceed upon each of the said subsequent Voyages; provided that such Ship so rebuilt should be commanded, in the First Instance, by the Captain of the former Ship, if he should be able to serve, and failing of him, by the said Chief Officer of the former Ship, if he should be able to serve: And whereas Cases may occur in which Ships may be lost, and all on board may unfortunately perish, and the Occasion of such Loss, and all the Circumstances relating thereto, may remain wholly unknown and unaccounted for; and Doubts have arisen whether, in such Cases, the Court of Directors may lawfully agree with the Owners of such Ship to build another Ship for the Service of the said United Company, instead of the Ship so lost; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed; be it therefore enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases of the Loss of any regular Ship as above described, which, since the Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, hath been engaged in the regular Service of the said United Company, or which now is or hereafter shall be engaged in the said Service for Six Voyages, before the Completion of her Fifth Voyage, it was and is lawful to and for the said Court of Directors to agree with the Owners of such Ship so lost to build another Ship for the Service of the said Company, of the same Class, instead of the Ship so lost, in such Manner, and subject to such Terms, as in the said recited Act are mentioned: Provided always, that the Impossibility of inquiring satisfactorily into the Loss of such Ship, from all on board having perished, and the Occasion and Circumstances relating thereto being wholly unknown, shall be first decided on by Eighteen Directors at the least at a Court specially assembled for taking the same into Consideration; and provided also, that such Vote or Resolution of the Court of Directors shall be reported to a General Court of Proprietors, and approved by Three Parts in Four of the Proprietors, in Manner and Form as directed by the said recited Act.

In case of the Loss of any Ship before the Completion of the Fifth Voyage, where the Circumstances attending it cannot be known from all on board perishing, the Directors declared enabled to agree with the Owners to rebuild it in Terms of the recited Act, &c.

Directors empowered to hire and take up Ships for an additional Number of Voyages in Manner herein mentioned.

II. And whereas it has been found that Ships may be repaired, and made fit to perform more than Six Voyages to and from the East Indies in the Service of the said United Company, and it will tend to the Advantage of the said Company, and to lessen the Consumption of Ship Timber, if the said Company shall hire and take up Ships fit to serve them for such additional Voyage or Voyages, beyond the Number for which they have been or may be originally contracted to serve the said Company, as shall not, together with those previously performed, exceed in the Whole Eight Voyages; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Directors of the said United Company, on a publick Advertisement with Four Weeks Notice, to receive Tenders for any Ship or Ships which have been or may be engaged in the Service of the said United Company, and to hire and take up such Ship or Ships for One or more Voyage or Voyages to and from the East Indies, in the Service of the said Company, beyond and after the Performance of the Number of Voyages for which any such Ship or Ships respectively have been or shall be contracted to serve the said Company; provided that such Ship or Ships shall be fit, or can be repaired and made fit, to serve the said Company for such additional Voyage or Voyages, and the lowest Tender to be always accepted: Provided always, that the Freight to be paid for any such Ship or Ships to be taken up for any additional Voyage or Voyages to be performed after the Expiration of the Number of Voyages for which such Ship or Ships respectively shall have been contracted for to serve the said Company, shall not exceed the Rate of Freight paid for such Ships respectively, under their respective original Contracts, unless the Average Amount of the Freights to be paid for the Ships of a similar Description taken up to serve the said Company for Six Voyages at least, under the last Advertisement, under which any Ship or Ships shall have been taken up to serve the said Company for Six Voyages at least immediately before the Receipt of the Tenders of Ships for an additional Voyage or additional Voyages, shall exceed such Rate, in which Case the Freight to be paid for Ships to perform any additional Voyage or Voyages may be extended to the said Average Amount of Freight, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that in all Cases of Ships taken up under the Authority of the said recited Act or of this Act, all the Provisions and Directions contained in the said recited Act shall be adhered to, and performed in the same Manner as in the said recited Act is mentioned and directed, so far as they shall be applicable to the Case.

Continuance of Act.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

From July 5, 1803, Wine for which the Duties granted by this Act shall have been paid, may be removed into the Port of London, or within 20 Miles of the Royal Exchange, unaccompanied with the Certificate required by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.

XLIX. And whereas by the Consolidation of the different Branches of the public Revenue, and of the several Duties payable on the Importation and Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and the Appropriation thereof as directed by the said recited Act of the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and subsequent Acts, the hereditary and temporary Revenues of the Crown, of Subsidies, of Tonnage and Poundage, and of other Duties upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, are not now kept distinct and separate at the several Offices, but have become blended with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage, both in the Collection and Appropriation thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for ascertaining the annual Amount of what such hereditary Revenues would have produced, in case the same had not been so consolidated, and that an Account should hereafter be kept of such annual Amount; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall cause to be prepared and kept an Account of what such hereditary Revenue would have amounted to in case the same had not been and was not hereby consolidated and collected with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage in the Collection and Appropriation thereof, in such Manner and Form as shall appear to the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, best adapted to ascertain such Amount, which Account the said Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners for the Time being, are hereby required to make out or cause to be made out and laid before Parliament, together with the public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament, pursuant to the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An

From July 5, 1803, the Treasury shall cause an Account to be kept of what the hereditary Revenues of the Crown would have produced if not blended with other Duties, and laid before Parliament with the public Accounts directed by 42 Geo. 3. c. 70.

Hereditary Revenue of His Majesty in Scotland not to be altered.

L. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or alter the hereditary Revenue of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Scotland, or other Revenues there granted to His late Majesty King George the Second, during his Life, and reserved to His present Majesty during his Life, by an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign; but the same, and the Civil Establishment payable out of the same shall continue to be paid in like Manner as heretofore; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties of Customs from July 5, 1803, though the Amount may have been computed, &c. before that Day, shall be applied in One Sum, and in like Manner as the Duties granted by this Act, except otherwise provided, &c.

LI. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising from any Duties of Customs, or any Arrears thereof, that shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, or received, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, for or on Account of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatever, imported or brought into Great Britain, or exported from Great Britain, or brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, although the Amount of the said Duties may have been computed and ascertained as such Duties have been usually computed and ascertained, before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, and although the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whereon any such Duties of Customs may have been charged or may be charged, may have been imported or exported, or brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three; and although any Duties of Customs due and payable, or charged or chargeable thereon, may have been secured by Bond or otherwise, on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, be appropriated and applied in one Sum or total Amount, in like Manner and to the same Purposes as the Duties of Customs by this Act granted, and herein-after directed to be appropriated and applied, except as is in this Act provided, any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all Monies arising by any of the Revenues of Customs hereafter to be paid or allowed, either upon Bond or otherwise, either by way of Drawback, Bounty, Certificate, Premium, or Allowance, or by any other legal Document whatever, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, although the Amount of the same shall have been computed and ascertained in the like Manner in which they have heretofore been usually computed and ascertained, or shall have become due before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, shall and may be paid or allowed by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, in One Sum or total Amount, out of any Monies in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs respectively.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

LII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties of Customs and the Duties of Tonnage imposed by this Act (the necessary charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, except as by this Act is specially provided.

The whole of the Duties, except otherwise provided, shall be entered in One Account at the Exchequer, and the Treasury shall cause distinct Accounts of such as were to be kept separate for Ten Years, from being granted, to be so kept, and laid before Parliament.

LIII. And whereas by divers Acts for granting several of the Duties hereby repealed, it is provided that during the Space of Ten Years then next ensuing, there should be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said respective Duties should, together with such other Duties as were respectively granted for the Purpose of making permanent Additions to the public Revenue, and of defraying any Charges occasioned by certain Loans made, and Stocks created by the Authority of Parliament, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever: And whereas it is expedient that the whole of the Duties by this Act granted, except where special Provision is otherwise made by this Act, should be entered in One Account, but that Provision should nevertheless be hereby made for ascertaining the Produce of such several Grants of Duties for the Remainder of such respective Periods; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the whole of the Duties of Customs and Tonnage granted by this Act, except as by this Act is otherwise specially provided, shall be entered together in One Account; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, shall, for and during the Remainder of the respective Periods of Ten Years, to be computed from the Time of granting such of the said Duties as aforesaid as were so directed to be entered separately as aforesaid, cause separate and distinct Accounts of what such Duties would have amounted to in case the same had not been and were not respectively hereby consolidated and collected with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage, to be made out in such Manner and Form as shall appear to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, best adapted to ascertain such Amounts respectively; which Accounts the said Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners for the Time being, are hereby required to cause to be laid before Parliament, together with the public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty aforesaid, intituled, An Act for directing certain public Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament; and for discontinuing certain other Forms of Account now in Use.

LIV. And whereas in the Consolidation of the Duties on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize under this Act, such Duties are in various Instances increased, and in many Cases new additional Duties are granted, be it therefore enacted, That if the Monies arising or to arise out of such Increase of the Duties hereby granted, and from such new and additional Duties as aforesaid, the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, being the estimated Produce thereof, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament.

Out of the Increase of Duties and the additional Ones, 250,000l. shall be applicable to defraying the Charge occasioned by any Loan made this Session.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants, in every such Action or Suit, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same, as any Defendant had in other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

Act not to affect Pensions payable by the Commissioners, &c. of Excise.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make void, alter, or prejudice, any Disposition, Appropriation, Appointment, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, relative to the regular and usual Payment of any Pension or Annuity charged and made payable to any Person or Persons in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or by virtue of any Grants or Letters Patent, made or granted by any of His Majesty's Royal Predecessors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that the same Dispositions, Appropriations, and Appointments, shall continue, be in Force, and take Effect in the Payment of all and every the Annuities and Pensions payable by the Commissioners or Receivers General of the Duties and Revenues of Excise, in the same Manner, and at the same Time and Times, that the said Annuities and Pensions have been usually paid before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three.

Act not to alter the Hereditary Revenue of His Majesty in Scotland, or the Payment of Annuities, &c. out of the Revenues of Excise.

IX. And be it also further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or alter the hereditary Revenue of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Scotland, or other Revenue then granted to His late Majesty King George the Second during his Life, and renewed to His present Majesty during his Life, by an Act made in the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, or in any Manner divert the Payment of the several and respective Annuities, Bounties, and other Charges and Expenses which, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, have usually been, or ought to be satisfied and paid by the Commissioners of Excise out of the Monies arisen by the Duties and Revenues of Excise, or Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, but that the same shall and may, and are hereby directed and required, to be satisfied, paid, and discharged out of all or any of the said Monies arisen, or which shall hereafter arise by the said Duties and Revenues, and come into the Hands of the said Commissioners in the same and like Manner, and at the respective Times at which the same have usually been accustomed to be paid and satisfied; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

The Sum reserved out of the Duties on Licences to retail Wine, by 30 Geo. 2. c. 19. shall be accounted for out of the Duties on such Licences granted by this Act.

X. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, (amongst other Things), for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, it was enacted, that, from and after the Demise of His Majesty, (whom God long preserve), the Sum of Seven thousand and Two Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Three-pence out of the Monies arising by the new Duties on Licences to retail Wine, reserved by an Act of the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, should be paid and accounted for to the Heirs and Successors of His Majesty, in like Manner as they were before the passing of an Act of the First Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain: And whereas the said Duties on Wine Licences have been repealed, and certain Duties of Excise granted in lieu thereof, which, by the present Act, are also repealed; be it further enacted, That the aforesaid Sum of Seven thousand and Two Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Three-pence shall, from and after the Demise of His Majesty, (whom God long preserve,) be so reserved, paid, and accounted for, out of the Duties by this Act granted on Licences to retail Foreign Wine, in like Manner as they are by the said Act required to be reserved, paid, and accounted for out of the like Duties hereby repealed.

The Amount of what would have been the hereditary Duties of Excise, shall be computed, set apart, and paid out of the Duties by this Act granted, as directed by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.

XI. And whereas by the aforesaid Act of the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it was directed, that the Commissioners of Excise should compute the exact Sums to which the Whole of the hereditary Duties of Excise, which, by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance; and for settling a Revenue upon His Majesty in lieu thereof, and by several subsequent Acts of Parliament, were granted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors for ever, would amount, if the same had not been repealed or altered by another Act of Parliament, made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, granting a certain Sum out of the Aggregate Fund, in lieu of certain of the said hereditary Duties; and that the said Commissioners should transmit an Account thereof quarterly, into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and also, that the proper Officers of the said Receipt of Exchequer should set apart, out of the Duties of Excise granted by the before-mentioned Act of the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, at the End of every Quarter after the Demise of His present Majesty, such a Sum of Money as it should appear by the said Account the Whole of the said hereditary Duties of Excise would have amounted to within such Quarter, to be paid to the Successors of the King's Majesty for ever: And whereas the Duties granted by the said Act of the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty are hereby repealed; be it therefore enacted, That the said quarterly Sums shall be so computed, and shall be set apart and paid out of the Duties by this Act granted, in like Manner as they are by the said Act directed to be computed and set apart out of the Duties of Excise hereby repealed.

From July 5, 1803, 36 Gallons shall be reckoned a Barrel of Beer or Ale, made by Common Brewers in Great Britain, and the Allowance shall be 3 Gallons out of that Quantity for Waste.

be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, every Thirty-six Gallons of Beer or Ale brewed or made by the Common Brewers in Great Britain, whether within the Weekly Bills of Mortality or without the same, taken according to the Standard of the Ale Quart, Four whereof shall make the Gallon, remaining in the Custody of the Chamberlains of His Majesty's Exchequer, shall be reckoned, accounted, and returned by the Gager or Gagers, or other Officers of Excise, for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; and that the Allowances to be made in Great Britain to the Common Brewers not selling Beer, Ale, or Worts, in any less Quantity than a whole Cask, containing Four Gallons and a Half, whether within or without the aforesaid Limits, for Waste by Fillings and Leakage of their Beer or Ale, or otherwise, out of the Returns or Charges made by the Gagers or other Officers, shall be Three Barrels upon every Thirty-six Barrels, both of Strong Beer and of Table Beer and Ale, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity; any Thing in the before-mentioned Acts, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Such Allowance to be in full for all Losses.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Allowance to the Common Brewer of Three Barrels upon every Thirty-six Barrels of Beer and Ale, shall be in full Compensation for all Waste or other Losses or Damages whatsoever.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Beer or Ale, brewed by the Common Brewers in Great Britain, shall be sold by such Common Brewers at any other Rate or Quantity for the Barrel than the aforesaid Quantity of Thirty-six Gallons; any Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to alter or vary the Quantity to be returned as and for a Barrel of Beer or Ale brewed or made by any Victualler or Retailer, or by any Person other than the Common Brewer, who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, but that the same shall be and remain as was enacted and declared by the aforesaid Act of the First Year of King William and Queen Mary, for an additional Duty of Excise on Beer, Ale, and other Liquors.

No Beer or Ale shall be sold by the Common Brewers at any other than the above Rate, but not to extend to other Brewers.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make void any Licence or Licences granted under or by virtue of any Law or Laws of Excise in force on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, or to require or compel any Person or Persons to whom such Licence shall have been granted, to renew or take out any fresh Licence until the End and Expiration of the Term for which any such Licence was granted; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Act not to make void Licences granted under any Law of Excise.

And for the greater Dispatch and Certainty in the Exportation of Tea to Ireland, be it farther enacted, That the Certificate of the due landing in Ireland of any Quantity of Tea exported from England, required by an Act passed in the Forty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to permit the Exportation of Tea to Ireland, without Payment of any Duty under certain Restrictions, shall be, and such Certificate is hereby required to be produced to and left with the proper Collector of the Customs and Officer of Excise respectively, within Two Months after the Date of the Bond or Security given or entered into in respect of the Exportation of such Tea, and that it shall be a Condition of such Bond that such Certificate shall be actually produced to and left with such Collector of the Customs and Officer of Excise respectively, within such Two Months after the Date thereof as aforesaid; any Thing in any Act of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

From Sept. 1, 1803, on Delivery out of Warehouse mentioned in 10 Geo. 1. c. 10. of any Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts, a Permit shall be given in Manner herein mentioned.

III. And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, among other Things for repealing certain Duties therein mentioned, payable upon Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, and Cocoa Paste imported, and for granting certain Inland Duties in lieu thereof, it was enacted, that all such Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts as should be imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain from any Foreign Parts upon the Entry thereof at the Custom House, and paying or securing the several Subsidies and additional Imposts which should then remain due thereon, should be forthwith carried or put into such Warehouse or Warehouses as mentioned in the said Act; and that the said Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts so brought into such Warehouse or Warehouses should not be taken or carried out thence upon any Account whatsoever, other than as is in the said Act after mentioned, and that upon producing a Warrant or Warrants, Certificate or Certificates therein mentioned signed by such Collector or Receiver as is therein mentioned (certifying that he had received the said Inland Duties by the said Act granted) to the respective Warehouse Keeper or Warehouse Keepers, such Warehouse Keeper or Warehouse Keepers should deliver out of such Warehouse or Warehouses therein mentioned, so much Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts intended for Home Consumption, as should be mentioned or expressed in such Warrant or Warrants, Certificate or Certificates respectively to have paid the said Inland Duties; and the respective Warehouse Keeper and Warehouse Keepers were by the said Act directed thereupon to give to such Importers or Proprietors a Permit or Certificate to accompany such Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts so delivered out (which Permit or Certificate should be also signed by an Officer attending the said Warehouse or Warehouses, who should be appointed by the said Commissioners for the said Inland Duties, or the major Part of them), to prevent the seizing thereof: And whereas it is expedient that for all Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts respectively expressed in any such Warrant or Warrants, or Certificate or Certificates mentioned in the said Act to have paid the Inland Duties, such Permit as is herein-after directed should be granted to accompany any such Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts in lieu and instead of such Permit or Certificate as aforesaid; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, upon the Delivery out of any such Warehouse or Warehouses mentioned in the said Act of any Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts expressed in such Warrant or Warrants, Certificate or Certificates respectively mentioned in the said Act to have paid the Inland Duties, the proper Officer or Officers of Excise shall thereupon grant and give a Permit in Writing, signed by the said Officer or Officers specifying the Weight of all such Coffee, Tea, and Cocoa Nuts respectively; and also the Name or Names of the Person or Persons to whom, and the Place to which the same is intended to be removed, and whether the same is intended to be removed by Land or by Water, and by what Mode of Conveyance the same is intended to be sent; and the Officer or Officers of Excise granting or giving any such Permit shall limit and express in such Permit the Time within which such Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa Nuts in such Permit mentioned, shall be removed from and out of such Warehouse, and also the Time within which the same shall be delivered and received into the House, Warehouse, Shop, Room, or other Place of the Person or Persons respectively, to whom the same is so permitted to be sent; and if such Permit be for the Removal of Tea, and the Tea so to be removed be Bohea, Congou, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, then any such Tea shall in the said Permit be specified and expressed under the Name and Denomination of Black Tea; and if the Tea so to be removed be neither Bohea, Congou, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, then such Tea shall in the said Permit be specified and expressed under the Name and Denomination of Green Tea.

If Coffee, &c. be not removed and delivered within the Time limited, it shall be deemed removed without Permit.

V. And whereas by an Act made in the Forty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation and Collection of certain Duties of Excise, it was enacted, that if any Commodity manufactured in Imitation of or to resemble Coffee, or to serve as a Substitute for Coffee or alledged so to be, should be made for Sale or sold, or should be found in the Custody or Possession of any Dealer or Dealers in or Seller or Sellers of Coffee in Great Britain, the same should be forfeited, together with the Packages containing the same, and should and might be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Person or Persons so making or selling the same, or the Dealer or Dealers in or Seller or Sellers of Coffee in whose custody or Possession the same should be found, should forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds: And whereas the said recited Clause has been found by Experience not to answer the good Purposes thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient to repeal the same, and in lieu thereof, to make such Provision as is herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, the said recited Clause shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, save and except in all Cases relating to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, which, on or before the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, shall be incurred under or by virtue of the said recited Clause; and that from and after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, if any burnt, scorched, or roasted Peas, Beans, or other Grain, or vegetable Substance or Substances prepared or manufactured for the Purpose of being in Imitation of or in any Respect to resemble Coffee or Cocoa, or to serve as a Substitute for Coffee or Cocoa, or alledged or pretended by the Possessor or Vender thereof so to be, shall be made or kept for Sale or shall be offered or exposed to Sale, or shall be found in the Custody or Possession of any Dealer or 41 Geo. 3. c. 91. reciting, that any Commodity manufactured in Imitation of Coffee, found in the Possession of any Dealer, should be forfeited.

After Sept. 1, 1803, the recited Clause shall be repealed; & if any Article prepared for the Purpose of resembling Coffee or Cocoa be found in the Possession of any Dealer, or shall be called by him English or British Coffee, &c. it shall be forfeited, and the Dealer shall forfeit 100l.

Dealers in or Seller or Sellers of Coffee or Cocoa, or of any burnt, scorched, or roasted Peas, Beans, or other Grain, or vegetable Substance or Substances not being Coffee or Cocoa, shall be called by the Preparer, Manufacturer, Possessor, or Vender thereof, by the Name of English or British Coffee, or any other Name of Coffee, or by the Name of American Cocoa or English or British Cocoa, or any other Name of Cocoa, the same respectively shall be forfeited, together with the Packages containing the same, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Person or Persons preparing, manufacturing, or selling the same, or having the same in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or the Dealer or Dealers in or Seller or Sellers of Coffee or Cocoa, in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Bounties on refined Sugar exported.

VIII. And whereas it is expedient on Account of the additional Duty by this Act imposed on Sugar imported into Great Britain, that an additional Bounty should be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of refined Sugar produced from Sugar of the British Plantations, or from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and on which Sugar the Duties of Customs, payable thereon at the Time of the Importation thereof, shall have been duly paid; be it therefore enacted, That there shall be paid and allowed on the Exportation from Great Britain of any such refined Sugar, and which shall have been prepared from Sugar on which the Duties of Customs payable at the Time of the Importation of such Sugar shall have been duly paid, an additional Bounty, to be calculated at and after the Rate of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds in Money on the Produce and Amount of whatever Bounty may be due and payable on any such refined Sugar respectively by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the Time of the Exportation thereof, exclusive of the Produce and Amount of the additional Bounty on such Sugar, granted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War, and until the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, additional Duties on the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and on the Tonnage of Ships and Vessels in Great Britain: Provided always, that the additional Bounty by this Act granted shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall be entered for Exportation before the Thirteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and four; and that the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar, which shall not have been actually shipped for Exportation within Six Weeks after the Expiration of this present Act.

43 G. 3. c. 70.

Not to affect the Provisions of Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, by which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize exported from Great Britain to Ireland, are respectively made to remain liable to or are charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether countervailing, or others, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

Countervailing Duties on Sugar imported from Ireland.

X. And whereas an additional Duty of Customs on Sugar imported into Great Britain is by this Act imposed: And whereas it is just and reasonable in respect thereof, and pursuant to the Provisions contained in the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that additional Duties of Customs should be charged on all refined Sugar, being of the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, sufficient to countervail the additional Duty on the raw Material by this Act imposed; be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, there shall be charged on any refined Sugar, being of the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, the several additional countervailing Duties of Customs, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed marked C.

Countervailing Duties to be managed in like Manner as former Countervailing Duties on refined Sugar, etc.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said additional countervailing Duties shall be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, and Methods, in every Respect, as the former countervailing Duties on refined Sugar, the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, are managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied.

Bounties on refined Sugar exported to Ireland.

XII. And whereas it is just and reasonable, on Account of the additional Duty of Customs by this Act charged on Sugar imported into Great Britain, that additional Drawbacks or Bounties should in respect thereof be paid and allowed on refined Sugar, of the Manufacture of Great Britain exported from thence to Ireland, be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Thirteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and four, there shall be paid and allowed, on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland, of the Manufacture of Great Britain, which shall have been prepared from Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations, or from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, on which Sugar the Duties of Customs payable at the Time of the Importation thereof shall have been duly paid, the several and respective additional Drawbacks or Bounties as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed marked D.: Provided always, that the said additional Drawbacks or Bounties respectively shall not be paid or allowed unless all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Conditions required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, with respect to Drawbacks or Bounties payable on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland of any refined Sugar, are duly complied with.

Commencement and Continuance of such Bounties.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall be entered for Exportation to Ireland before the Thirteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and four; and that the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall not have been actually shipped for Exportation to Ireland within Six Weeks after the Expiration of this present Act.

Duties to be under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That such of the additional Duties of Customs, as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England, for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, for the Time being.

Duties and Drawbacks under this Act to be levied, etc. as former Duties, etc. unless hereby altered.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the said Tables hereunto annexed, marked A. and B. as the additional Duties of Customs, whether charged and payable on the several Goods, Wares, and Merchandize specified therein, according to the Value thereof, or otherwise, and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs upon, for, or in respect of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, may and shall respectively be ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, or Methods, as former Duties of Customs, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general, and also by any such special Means, Ways, or Methods respectively, as former Duties of Customs, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, of the same Sorts or Kinds, were or might be ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed, and the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, whereon Duties of Customs are by this Act charged, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs allowed, upon the Importation thereof into, or Exportation thereof from Great Britain, or on any other Account whatever, shall be, and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, Seizures, and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Seizures, Sales, and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, respecting the Revenue of Customs, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, and all Pains, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures, of whatever Nature or Kind the same may be, as well Pains of Death as others, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, Provisions, and Directions, contained in any such Act or Acts, shall (unless where expressly altered by this Act), and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution, for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs, hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

[25th March 1805.]

44 G.3. c. 26. WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for charging, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, certain Rates and Duties, and for allowing certain Bounties and Drawbacks upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, imported into and exported from Ireland; and also for charging certain Inland Duties of Excise and Taxes in Ireland in lieu of former Rates, Duties, and Taxes, Bounties and Drawbacks; and by another Act, also made in the 44 G.3. c. 27. last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for charging, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, certain increased Countervailing Duties on the Importation into Ireland, of the several Goods, Wares, and Merchandize therein mentioned, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain; and for allowing increased Drawbacks on the Exportation to Great Britain of the several Articles therein mentioned, being the Manufacture of Ireland; certain Duties on Importation and Exportation, and certain Drawbacks on Exportation, and also certain Bounties or Allowances on Exportation and Importation, into and from Ireland, of Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Manufactures, as in the said Acts mentioned, were (among other Things) granted and allowed for the Term by the said Acts limited and appointed: And whereas the Duties and Drawbacks granted and allowed by the said two recited Acts, upon certain of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in the said Acts mentioned, 44 G.3. c. 67. were altered and increased by another Act made in the said last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, certain Duties on the Importation of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, herein mentioned, into Ireland, and also certain Duties of Excise on Spirits, Malt, and Tobacco, in Ireland; and for the Increase of certain publick Revenues in Ireland, by making the same payable in British Currency; for the Term by the said last mentioned Act limited and appointed: And whereas the Duties, Drawbacks, Bounties, and Allowances, now payable under and by virtue of the said several Acts, will expire and be determined immediately mediately after the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five; and it is expedient that certain Duties and certain Drawbacks in respect thereof, and certain Bounties and Allowances, should be granted and allowed instead of the said Duties, Drawbacks, Bounties, and Allowances, so expiring as aforesaid: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the said Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid throughout Ireland unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the Importation into Ireland of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, as mentioned and set forth in the Schedules respectively marked A. and B. hereunto annexed, and upon the Exportation from Ireland of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, as mentioned and set forth in the Schedule marked C. hereunto annexed; and upon certain Entries, Inwards and Outwards in the Port of Dublin, and upon certain Ships or Vessels trading to Ireland, mentioned and set forth in the Schedule marked D. hereunto annexed, the several Rates and Duties, as the same are respectively described and set forth in Words and Figures in the said Schedules marked A., B., C., and D.; and that there shall be paid and allowed upon the Exportation from Ireland of the several Goods, Wares, and Merchandize mentioned and set forth in the said Schedules marked A. and B., the several Drawbacks of the said Duties inserted, set forth, and described in Words and Figures in the said Schedules respectively; and upon the Exportation from and Importation into Ireland of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, described in the Schedule marked E. hereunto annexed, there shall be paid and allowed the several Bounties and Allowances as the same are set forth and described in Words and Figures therein mentioned.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's publick Expences, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several additional Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, (except as herein-after is provided), without any Discount whatever, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported or brought into Great Britain from Parts beyond the Seas, and upon certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, the several additional Duties of Customs, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed marked (A.) and (B.)

From April 5, 1805, the additional Duties of Customs specified in the annexed Tables (A.) and (B.) shall be paid.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the additional Duties of Customs by this Act granted shall not be paid or payable on any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which shall be secured in Warehouses under His Majesty's Locks, unless and until such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be taken out of any such Warehouse for the Purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, or shall be sold for the Payment of Duties under any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to such Duties.

Duties not payable on Goods secured in Warehouse until taken out for Consumption, &c.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the additional Duties of Customs granted by this Act shall not be charged or payable on the Produce and Amount of the additional Duties of Customs granted by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty, during the present War and until the Ratification of a De-

Duties may be secured by Bond.

IX. Provided

Act not to alter any of the Provisions of Acts of Union.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal, or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, by which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize exported from Great Britain to Ireland, are respectively made to remain liable to, charged with, or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether countervailing or others, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Ireland imported into Great Britain, shall be charged with the countervailing Duties expressed in Table (C.)

X. And whereas an additional Duty of Customs on Sugar imported into Great Britain is by this Act imposed: And whereas it is just and reasonable in respect thereof, and pursuant to the Provisions contained in the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that additional Duties of Customs should be charged on all refined Sugar, being of the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, sufficient to countervail the additional Duty on the raw Material by this Act imposed; be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, there shall be charged on any refined Sugar, being of the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, the several additional countervailing Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed marked (C.)

The additional countervailing Duties to be under the same Management as the former.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said additional countervailing Duties shall be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, and Methods in every Respect as the former countervailing Duties on refined Sugar, the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, are managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied.

The Drawbacks or Bounties inserted in Table (D.) shall be paid on the Exportation of Refined Sugar from Great Britain to Ireland.

XII. And whereas it is just and reasonable, on Account of the additional Duty of Customs by this Act charged on Sugar imported into Great Britain, that additional Drawbacks or Bounties should in respect thereof be paid and allowed on refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain exported from thence to Ireland, be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, there shall be paid and allowed, on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland of refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain which shall have been prepared from Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations, or from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, on which Sugar the Duties of Customs payable at the Time of the Importation thereof shall have been duly paid, the several and respective additional Drawbacks or Bounties, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (D.): Provided always, that the said additional Drawbacks or Bounties respectively shall not be paid or allowed unless all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Conditions required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act with respect to Drawbacks or Bounties payable on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland on any refined Sugar are duly complied with.

Bounty not allowed on Sugar entered for Exportation before May 17, 1805.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall be entered for Exportation to Ireland before the Seventeenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and five.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs;

XIV. And be it further enacted, That such of the additional Duties of Customs as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being.

and to be levied as former Duties of Customs.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the said Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.) as the additional Duties of Customs, whether charged and payable on the several Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, specified therein, according to the Value thereof, or otherwise, may and shall respectively be ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, and recovered, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, or Methods, as former Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in general, and also by any such special Means, Ways, or Methods, respectively, as former Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, of the same Sorts or Kinds, were or might be ascertained, managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, and recovered; and the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, whereon Duties of Customs are by this Act charged, shall be, and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, Seizures, and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Seizures, Sales, and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, respecting the Revenue of Customs, (except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act,) and all Pains, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures, of whatever Nature or Kind the same may be, as well Pains of Death as others, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, made for securing the Revenues of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, Provisions, and Directions, contained in any such Act or Acts, shall (unless where expressly altered by this Act) and are hereby directed and declared to extend to and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

Application of Duties.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties by this Act imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and the Money so paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

Separate Account to be kept of the Duties, and annually laid before Parliament.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall, for the Period of Ten Years from the Commencement of this Act, cause a separate and distinct Account of the additional Duties granted by this Act to be prepared and annually laid before Parliament, pursuant to an Act, passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for directing certain publick Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament, and for discontinuing certain other Forms of Account now in use; and the Monies arising from the said additional Duties shall be deemed a permanent Increase to the publick Revenue of Great Britain, for the Purpose of defraying any increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made or Stock created by Authority of any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Duty on Slate or Stone may be added, where Contracts have been made before April 5, 1805.

XVIII. And whereas standing Contracts may have been made before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, for serving Persons with Slate or Stone, to be delivered in Point of Time after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five; be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, the Owners or Proprietors of any Slate or Stone, the Duties on which have been by this Act increased, and which shall be delivered after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, in pursuance of such Contract, shall be allowed to add to the Prices respectively agreed for in such Contracts, so much as the Duties charged by this Act exceed the Duties payable on such Slate and Stone at and immediately before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and five, and such Owners or Proprietors shall, by virtue of this Act, be paid such Sum as the Duties so increased shall amount to.

Act not to affect the Acts of Union of Great Britain and Ireland &c.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said Tenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and six, by which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported from Ireland into Great Britain, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize exported from Great Britain to Ireland, are respectively made to remain liable to, or are charged with, or exempted from any Duties or Customs, whether countervailing or others, or by which any Drawbacks or Bounties are allowed or given in respect of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said additional countervailing Duties shall be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, and Methods in every Respect as the former countervailing Duties on refined Sugar, the Manufacture of Ireland, and imported from thence into Great Britain, are managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, appropriated, and applied.

From June 1, 1806, the Drawbacks or Bounties specified in Table (D.) shall be allowed on the Exportation of Manufactured Sugar to Ireland.

XIV. And whereas it is just and reasonable, on account of the additional Duty of Customs by this Act charged on Sugar imported into Great Britain, that additional Drawbacks or Bounties should in respect thereof be paid and allowed on refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain exported from thence to Ireland, be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and six, there shall be paid and allowed, on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland of the Manufacture of Great Britain which shall have been prepared from Sugar of the Produce of the British Plantations, or from Sugar imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, on which Sugars the Duties of Customs payable at the Time of the Importation thereof shall have been duly paid, the several and respective additional Drawbacks or Bounties as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (D.): Provided always, that the said additional Drawbacks or Bounties respectively shall not be paid or allowed unless all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Conditions required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act with respect to Drawbacks or Bounties payable on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland of any refined Sugar are duly complied with.

But Bounty shall not be paid on Sugar entered for Exportation to Ireland before July 14, 1806, &c.

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall be entered for Exportation to Ireland before the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and six, and that the said additional Bounty shall not be paid or allowed on any refined Sugar which shall not have been actually shipped for Exportation to Ireland, within Six Weeks after the Expiration of this present Act.

11 Gul. 3. c. 7.

Offences committed on the Sea, &c. may be tried in any of His Majesty's Islands, &c. by virtue of the King's Commission under the Great Seal directed to Four or more discreet Persons, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, it is enacted, That all Treasons, Felonies, Robberies, Murders, and Confederacies, committed on the Sea, shall be enquired of, tried, and determined, according to the common Course of the Laws of this Land used for such Offences upon the Land within this Realm: And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Suppression of Piracy, it is enacted, that all Piracies, Felonies, and Robberies, committed on the Sea, or in any Haven, River, Creek, or Place, where the Admiral or Admirals have Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction, may be examined, enquired of, tried, heard, and determined, and adjudged, in any Place at Sea, or upon the Land, in any of His Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Forts, or Factories, to be appointed for that Purpose by the King's Commission, in the Manner therein directed, and according to the Rules of the Civil Law: And whereas Treasons, Murders, and divers other Felonies and Misdemeanours, not mentioned in the said Statute of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King William the Third, cannot be tried by virtue of any Commission directed under that Act, but the Persons committing, or charged with having committed the same upon the Seas in or near the East or West Indies, and in Places very remote, can only be brought to Trial by sending them to England to be tried within this Realm, under the Commission directed by the said Statute of the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, whereby not only great Charges and Expences are incurred, but Offenders do oftentimes escape unpunished by reason of the Delay and Difficulties attending such Prosecutions: For Remedy whereof, and in order that One uniform Course of Trial may be had for all Treasons, Piracies, Felonies, Robberies, Murders, Conspiracies, and other Offences committed upon the Seas; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Treasons, Piracies, Felonies, Robberies, Murders, Conspiracies, and other Offences of what Nature or Kind soever, committed upon the Sea, or in any Haven, River, Creek, or Place, where the Admiral or Admirals have Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction, may be enquired of, tried, heard, determined, and adjudged according to the common Course of the Laws of this Realm used for Offences committed upon the Land within this Realm, and not otherwise, in any of His Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Forts, or Factories, under and by virtue of the King's Commission or Commissions, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to be directed to any such Four or more discreet Persons as the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Keeper, or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, shall from Time to Time think fit to appoint; and that the said Commissioners so to be appointed, or any Three of them, shall have such and the like Powers and Authorities for the Trial of all such Murders, Treasons, Piracies, Felonies, Robberies, Conspiracies, and other Offences, within any such Island, Plantation, Colony, Dominion, Fort, or Factory, as any Commissioners appointed or to be appointed according to the Directions of the said Statute of the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, by any Law or Laws now in force have or would have for the Trial of the said Offences within this Realm; and that all Persons convicted of any of the said Offences, so to be tried by virtue of any Commission to be made according to the Directions of this Act, shall be subject and liable to, and shall suffer all such and the same Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as by any Law or Laws now in force, Persons convicted of the same respectively would be subject and liable to in case the same were respectively inquired of, tried, heard, determined, and adjudged, within this Realm by virtue of any Commission made according to the Directions of the said Statute of the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Articles of Agreement between the East India Company and the Creditors of the Nabobs of Arcot, recited.

WHEREAS by certain Articles of Agreement indented, had, made, concluded, and agreed upon, and bearing Date the Tenth Day of July, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and five, between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies of the One Part, and the several Persons whose Hands and Seals should be thereto set and affixed, and who respectively were, or claimed to be, Creditors of His Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, formerly Nabob of Arcot, and of the Carnatic, in the East Indies, and now deceased, and of His Highness the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, late Nabob of Arcot, and of the Carnatic, eldest Son and Successor of His said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, and of His Highness the Ameer ul Omrah, the Second Son of His said Highness the Nabob Wallah Jah, and now also deceased, or of some or One of them the said several Nabobs, and the said Ameer of the other Part: It is witnessed and covenanted between the said

Parties, That the said United Company and their Successors should, so long as the Administration of the Revenues of the Carnatic Payen Ghaut should be vested in them, set apart, annually, in their Treasury at Madras, the Sum of Star Pagodas Three Lac Forty Thousand, if after defraying all the Charges of collecting the said Revenues so much should be realized to, and be received therefrom, by the said United Company, into their said Treasury at Madras, in order to form a Fund for the Payment of all the just Debts to Private Creditors remaining unsatisfied of the said Nabob Wallah Jah, the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, and the said Ameer ul Omrah, in the Manner, and subject to the several Terms, Conditions, Provisoes, Stipulations, and Agreements therein-after contained: And in and by the said Articles of Agreement it is amongst other Things further witnessed and covenanted that the said several Persons, Parties to the said several Articles of Agreement of the Second Part, did thereby severally and respectively, for themselves and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, accept the said Fund, so provided and to be administred as therein is mentioned, in full Satisfaction and Discharge of all Claims and Demands whatsoever which they the said Parties severally ever had, directly or indirectly, on the said Nabob Wallah Jah, or the said Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, or the said Ameer ul Omrah, or any of them: And it was further agreed, That the Honourable Richard Ryder of Lincoln's Inn in the County of Middlesex, Benjamin Hobhouse of Dover Street, Piccadilly, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, and Thomas Cockburn of Devonshire Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary le-bone, in the said County of Middlesex, Esquire, and their Successors, to be appointed in Manner therein-after mentioned, should be Commissioners and Referees in England for the Investigation of the Origin, Justice, and Amount of the several Debts claimed to be due to the several Persons, Parties thereto, of the Second Part, and of the Rights of such Claimants to such Debts, and to participate in the Fund thereby created for the Discharge thereof, and also for the Apportionment of the said Fund amongst the Parties entitled thereto, and for doing and ordering such other Matters as it was thereby agreed should be done or ordered by them: And in order to the more complete Investigation of the Matters thereby submitted to the said Commissioners in England, it was thereby declared and agreed, That the Governor General of Fort William in Bengal, in Council for the Time being, should appoint Three Persons from amongst the covenanted Civil Servants of the said United Company on the Bengal Establishment, to sit at Madras, and to be and act as Commissioners and Referees in India for the Purposes therein mentioned: And it was thereby further agreed, That Two Persons, to be called Registers of the Debts of the Nabobs of Arcot should, from Time to Time, be appointed by the major Part in Value of the said Creditors, subject always to the Approbation and Dismissal of the Court of Directors of the said United Company, One of which Registers should act in London, and the other of them at Madras, and it should be their Duty respectively to enter in proper Books, to be kept for that Purpose, Accounts of all the Sums to be allowed by the said Commissioners in England, as the Amount of the Debts of the several Creditors, according to the Classes therein mentioned, and of all Transfers and Assignments to be made as therein is mentioned by the said Creditors respectively, and their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, of the Whole or any Part of the Sums to be awarded by the said Commissioners in England to the said Creditors respectively, and also of all Sums which thereafter might be transferred or assigned, from Time to Time, to any other Person or Persons whomsoever: And it was thereby further agreed, that after the final Allowance and absolute Establishment by the said Commissioners in England, of the Sums respectively to be allowed to the several Creditors, and in respect of which they were to be admitted into either of the Classes therein mentioned, such Sum should be carried to the Credit of the respective Creditors, in the Books to be kept by the Register in London, or in the Books to be kept by the Register at Madras, at the Option of the several Creditors: And it was thereby further agreed, That the said Commissioners in England, without Delay, should cause such Notices as they should see fit to be published, calling upon all Persons resident, as well in Europe as in the East Indies, or elsewhere, and who claimed to be Creditors of the said several Nabobs and the said Ameer, to send in to the said Commissioners Accounts of their Claims, and they should cause Schedules of such Claims so made before them, to be published from Time to Time in London and at Madras, in order that all such Persons as should have any Interest to oppose or impeach the same, might have sufficient Opportunities so to do; and the said Commissioners should cause Schedules or Lists of the Claims, and Objections to be delivered to the Court of Directors of the said United Company, and the said Commissioners should give such reasonable Time, as they should see fit, to the several Claimants, to support their Claims by Proof, and to all Persons having any Interest in the said Fund thereby created, to impeach, object to, and oppose such Claims respectively, by Argument or Proof, and the said Commissioners should be at Liberty to receive Proof for or against any Claims to be preferred before them by the Testimony vivâ voce, or by Examination, or written Interrogatories, or by Affidavit of Witnesses, and by Production of written Documents, and by such other Ways and Means, as therein mentioned: And it was thereby further agreed, That the said Commissioners in India should be at Liberty originally to receive the Claims of Creditors to be preferred to them at Madras, and Objections to be made to any Claims, whether preferred in England in support of such Claims and Objections, and to proceed in the Investigation thereof in such Manner as is therein agreed upon as to the Proceedings of the said Commissioners in England; and the said Commissioners in India should also proceed in Investigation of such Matters as should be referred to them by the Commissioners in England, in pursuance of such Instructions as from Time to Time should be sent to them for that Purpose, as by the said Articles of Agreement, Relation being thereunto had, may, amongst many other Things, more fully and at large appear: And whereas it is expedient, That Provision should be made by Law for the due and faithful Execution of the Trusts reposed in the said Commissioners, as well in England as in India, and for the legal Administration of Oaths to the Parties and Witnesses to be examined on the Investigation to be made by the said Commissioners, and that they should be authorized to compel the Attendance and Examination of
